STATEMENT OF COMMUNITY

Living in a residenceEDUCATION hall at The University of Tampa means OPENNESS living in a community RESPECT of students. This community is a RESPONSIBILITY dynamic place composed of various people with different CARING values, cultures, lifestyles, and must strive to understand the individuality and life beforgettiega on keys; resognize that lipuareas and their furnishings belong to everyone and that abuse of the commonty er in an atmosphere of positive encouragement and mutual respect. We must possess a genuine desire to learn from those around us as well as give others the respect and tolerance we desire. Each person has a role to play in our residence hall community and should be allowed to do so.

to ensure teaching and learning takes place outside the classroom;

so ideas and thoughts can be discussed freely:

to ensure the individual is honored so diversity can be pursued;

so the individual accepts obligations to the community and is held accountable for individual actions to ensure the individual's well-being is supported and community service is encouraged; other distractions inhibiting the exercof this right; sleep without undue disturbance from noise and other distractions; have your personal belonging attitudes. As member sespected by others; have a clean environment in which to live; have free access to your room and to facilities wided in the residence hall; enjoy of the community we personal privacy within limits of the idential setting; host guests, with the expectation that you will explain accepted behavioral standards and tha guests will respect the rights of your mmate(s) and fellow residents; consult Residence Life staff in settliconflicts; be freerom fear of intimidation and physical or emotionalmaxpect that these privileges will be respected. reasonable requests confelling essidents; the operative in all dealings with residence hall staff members; accept responsibility for speal and community safety; refrain a Mon Misusing safety equipment, propping security doors open or losing or

> A community represents several different individuals existing interdependently.